

Agent Spy Punzel

I awake from my father calling me down for a family meeting, "Ugh," I thought to myself. As I head down stairs to the Secret Spy Agent Headquarters (or the S.S.A.H.) for our meeting, my dad says, "We need to catch this evil witch soon."

"I agree honey, we have been trying to catch her for years." My mother replies.

"Well today is the day." My father states.

"What do you mean dad?" I ask.

"Our boss has tracked the witch down, and it turns out that she is right here in Happily Ever After Land. She is living in the Enchanted Woods. Only 1 mile from here!" My father exclaims.

"Awesome!" I shout.

The rest of the meeting was really boring. All dad said was that we would start O.C.W. (Operation Catch Witch) in about an hour.

An hour is staking too long so I start O.C.W. By myself. That will show mom and dad that I am responsible.

I see the tower and I start heading toward it when I get tackled to the dirty forest ground. "Why are you lurking around my Tower?....Wait a minute, you are Punzel and your family are secret spy agents at the S.S.A.H.." Snarls the evil witch. The next thing I know, she whacks me on the head with a rock she finds nearby.

I wake up my head is pounding so hard I thought the witch was playing the bass drum. It's dark with only 1 window that I can see. I must be in her tower. I try to wipe my long golden blonde hair out of my face when I realize my hands are tied up. "Oh yay, you're awake. Well now I have to go to the market and get MY dinner. You are probably wondering what you are having. Oh yeah NOTHING! Ha ha ha!" The witch snorts a horrid laugh as she leaves to go to the market.

A couple of minutes later I hear, "Punzel Punzel? Where are you?" It was my mother and father.

"I'm up here in the witches tower!" I shout back.

"Okay, Punzel let down your hair."

"I can't mother the witch tied me up. You'll have to climb up here and untie me!" I shout once more. Mother and father climb up and get into the tower.

"How did you... never mind I was just trying to show you and dad that I am responsible enough to do these type of missions by myself."

"And look at what you have gotten your self into." My father chuckles.

They get done untieng me when I hear the witch coming up the steps, so I whisper, "Hurry, hide I hear the witch coming."

My parents hid behind the door just in time. As the witch walks in , my parents hit her in the head with a rock just like she did me.

Now we have caught the witch and she going in the Very High Tech prison for a very very long time.(And yes, that is the name of the prison.)

And almost everyone lived happily ever after!!!!

THE END
